MOTION TO SET TELEPHONIC STATUS CONFERENCE

COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through Robert E. McGuire, Acting United States Attorney, and the undersigned Assistant United States Attorney, Joshua A. Kurtzman, and moves this court to set a telephonic status conference the week of July 14 – 18, 2025. For cause, the United States filed a Motion in Limine to Refer to Victims by Pseudonyms at Trial on June 25, 2025. The United States understands that certain victims may seek to intervene in this action depending on the Court’s ruling on this, currently unopposed, Motion in Limine. The United States is concerned that a ruling on this pending motion on the eve of trial may affect a victim’s ability to intervene, if such an action is necessary. Accordingly, the United States asks the Court to set a counsel-only telephonic status conference the week of July 14 – 18, 2025, to discuss this pending Motion in Limine.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT E. McGUIRE
Acting United States Attorney
